

2014 Don't be a Turkey!! FUNdraiser

USJSAR presents a Navigational
Challenge in Pagosa Springs,

DATE: August 17, 2014

START TIME: 3 Hour Rogaine: 12:00 pm—3:00 pm
6 Hour Rogaine: 9:00 am—3:00 pm

Upper San Juan Search and Rescue (USJSAR) is proud to host the 3rd annual navigating challenge in Pagosa Springs, Colorado. All proceeds from this event will go to USJSR so we can continue our commitment to helping others. Two races will be held, no experience necessary! A quick training will be provided for beginners prior to the event start. This year there will be a map/compass AND GPS category.

Race Highlights

- ◆ Map and compass or GPS “scavenger hunt” type race
- ◆ Two races (3 hour and 6 hours)
- ◆ Unique location in San Juan National Forest so plenty of free camping is available
- ◆ Individual or teams (up to 5 people) allowed

Questions and More Information:

Contact: usjsar.rogaine@gmail.com

Sign Up at www.active.com or visit our web site at <http://uppersanjuansearchandrescue.org/rogaine>

Race Start—Intersection of Monument Road and Turkey Springs Road (off Piedra Road, CR600).

ENTRY FEES / Per Person:

	By August 1	Up to Race Day
3 Hour Race	$20	$30
6 Hour Race	$30	$40

Note: Children under 10 race free with an adult. $5 Discount for Young Adults age 11-17 , USA Orienteering members, Rocky Mtn Orienteering Club